Atlanta 5, Georgia

Dear Ralph:

I am so happy that my situation and that of the church there allows us to postpone our proposed meeting for 1966. I will be happy to tentatively schedule the 1967 meeting to coincide with your building opening. It might have to be a Sunday through Wednesday night affair and at the most would have to be a Sunday through Friday night. I am sure that we can work out something and appreciate your response to my request.

Our prayers are extended for you in your work.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
